++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Unsettled with sunny spells, showers, and a risk of thunder.

Today:
A rather cloudy morning with showers turning heavy and, potentially, thundery at times through into the afternoon. Turning drier later in the afternoon as showers thin-out and sunny spells become more widespread. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Daytime showers will gradually fade away during the evening to leave a largely dry night with clear spells. Potentially cooler than the last couple of nights. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Monday:
A drier day than on Sunday with sunny spells and a few light afternoon showers. Cloud will build from the south during the afternoon with rain arriving by Monday night. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Rain likely early Tuesday before clearing east. Unsettled Wednesday and Thursday, with a mix of sunny spells and showers; widespread and possibly heavy or thundery on Wednesday.
